Re: Notice of Delivery System Change

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This notice is sent pursuant to the applicable terms of your affiliation agreement(s) with Fox Cable Network Services, LLC (“FCNS”) and/or any affiliate of FCNS (collectively with FNCS, “Fox”), which govern your distribution of the Fox video programming services.

We are writing to inform you that Fox will be upgrading its video compression technology to support the high efficiency video coding standard (“HEVC”). In connection with this upcoming delivery system change, Fox will be providing you with new equipment that will support HEVC. It is anticipated that your new equipment will be shipped early next year.

Should you have any questions or concerns regarding this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me or the Fox Engineering team at MCC.DistOps@Fox.com.

Sincerely,

Steven Carcano
